Daniel Watts is a native of North Carolina, raised in Cary and now living in Raleigh. He joins Conner Gwyn Schenck as an associate attorney after working as a law clerk at the North Carolina Court of Appeals for the Honorable Robert N. Hunter, Jr. and as an Assistant District Attorney in the Wake County District Attorney's Office. While in law school at Elon University School of Law, Daniel participated in moot court competition, was Law Review Symposium Editor, and was a Presidential Scholar, Dean's Fellow, and Leadership Fellow. Daniel was a four-year Division-I varsity basketball player at Elon University. At Conner Gwyn Schenck, he plans to focus on litigation and arbitration of construction claims and disputes.
